

Forever Don't Hit Like Before

Coco Jones

Goin' through old conversations
Givin' up on expectations
I ain't feelin' it no more
Bottle of wine, cheap temptations
Couple cycles in rotation
I ain't feedin' it no more

It's a matter of time
Can't predict the end, so I can't be sure
How do I protect my heart if I don't keep score?
I can't ignore
Now that I figured out none of this shit gon' last
Forever just don't hit like before

Ooh
Ooh
Forever just don't hit like before
Ooh
Ooh
Forever just don't hit like

Don't say it
What a waste of my patience
Don't wanna believe you're different
'Cause words don't mean shit from experience
Fly out your mouth, ain't no weight in 'em
You gon' let me down
Don't say it

'Cause it's a matter of time
Can't predict the end, so I can't be sure (Be sure)
How do I protect my heart if I don't keep score?
I can't ignore
Now that I figured out none of this shit gon' last
Forever just don't hit like before

Ooh
Ooh (Yeah, yeah)
Forever just don't hit like before
Ooh
Ooh
Forever just don't hit like before

Somebody tell me why
Someone explain it, that I
Somebody tell me why, why
Forever just don't hit like before?
