

Headline

Coco Jones

Tryna be slick, better watch your step, I'm a land mine
You don't wanna see my bad side
You gon' end up as a headline, woah
I know you see me all pretty but boy I got a bad side
This ain't funny, this ain't satire
You gon' end up as a headline
If you catch me on my bad side

You must think that I'm stupid
I know what you been doing
Got your location I know you where you at
Said you chilling with your homies that's cap
And I know who you been screwing
Why you acting nervous?
Really hope she was worth it

What you doing ain't new
I ain't no fool
I been ahead of you
Said you still love me like you used to
I ain't no fool
I ain't no fool

Tryna be slick, better watch your step, I'm a land mine
You don't wanna see my bad side
You gon' end up as a headline, woah
I know you see me all pretty but boy I got a bad side
This ain't funny, this ain't satire
You gon' end up as a headline
If you catch me on my bad side

Still move how you move and I hate it
You're full of it I'm out of patience
Your actions don't equal your phrases
I'll take you out of the equation
You the reason it won't last
You can't keep it in your pants
And hold me down like a real man
I already know

What you doing ain't new
I ain't no fool
I been ahead of you
Said you still love me like you used to
I ain't no fool
I ain't no fool

Tryna be slick, better watch your step, I'm a land mine
You don't wanna see my bad side
You gon' end up as a headline, woah
I know you see me all pretty but boy I got a bad side
This ain't funny, this ain't satire
You gon' end up as a headline
If you catch me on my bad side
