Coco Jones

I'm in Hollyweird, Hollyweird
It's getting hella weird
Hollyweird, Hollyweird
It's getting hella weird

The City of Angels is devils just covered in diamonds (no)
All of the glitters just dust you can't trust tho it's blinding

Everything about it is just something you ain't seen before
Don't get to excited when you're breaking down a bolted door
They don't know this ain't the place for the broken weak hearted

I'm in Hollyweird Hollyweird
It's getting hella weird
When I'm in Hollyweird
I'm cavalier
Just kidding
Cause all I hear about
Is all these other pretty girls around the world
Tryna be a barbie girl but girl
It's Hollyweird Hollyweird
It's getting hella weird

Instagram before ya breakfast, yea
These kids killing for a necklace, yea
Make up can't make up for what they lack
Plastic living they like cause

Everything about it is just something you ain't seen before
Don't get to excited when you're breaking down a bolted door
They don't know this ain't the place for the broken weak hearted

I'm in Hollyweird Hollyweird
