

Let Me Check It

Coco Jones

Yeah
Oh
Baby, yeah
Yeah

You been actin' defensive
Your screen locked, password protected
Okay, I get the message
If there ain't nothin' on your phone, let me check it

You tried so hard
Caught me off my guard
You were so close but so far
I won't be out here lookin' stupid

Them DMs, that'll do it
See you messed up, yeah you blew it
Had a good one and you knew it
But then I found out what the truth is

You been actin' defensive
Your screen locked, password protected
Okay, I get the message
If there ain't nothin' on your phone, let me check it
Cause I know you talk to your exes
Your screen locked and password protected
Okay, I get the message
If there ain't nothin' on your phone, let me check it

Let me, let me check it
I wanna, I wanna check it
Let me check your phone
I wanna, I wanna check
Let me, let me check it
I wanna, I wanna check it
Let me check your phone
I wanna, I wanna check

Think you're so slick
Clear your history and GPS
You should know when to quit
Instead you tried to make me lose it

Them DMs, that'll do it
See you messed up, yeah you blew it
Had a good one and you knew it
But then I found out what the truth is

You been actin' defensive
Your screen locked, password protected
Okay, I get the message
If there ain't nothin' on your phone, let me check it
Cause I know you talk to your exes
Your screen locked and password protected
If there ain't nothin' on your phone, let me check it

Let me, let me check it
Let me, let me check it

If there ain't nothin' on your phone, let me check it
