

Sweep It Up

Coco Jones

I don't wanna leave your love behind
Can't keep up with the ways that you change your mind
If you can't keep up and break my heart to pieces

Somebody else gon' sweep it up, sweep it up
Awe, damn
Sweep it up, if you can't keep up
On that hand is still hard to reach you
Don't let your next mistake be the one that teach you
Somebody else gon' sweep it up, sweep it up
Awe, damn
Sweep it up, if you can't keep up
Somebody else gon' sweep it up, sweep it up
Awe, damn
Sweep it up
Better clean this up

You'd forget your name is, no one called you it
And you forget the use of every argument
I thought I was selfish, but you take the cake
Come alive at night and I always take the bait, but you
Something about you I can't let go of
And you make me question all I know of Should've been my baby, what's the hold up?
Just tell me when you're gonna grow up, oh whoa

Two years and, still, I see you
And get stage fright, two years I can't lie
Wish that we were on the same side
My main line, trying to save you like daylight

I don't wanna leave your love behind
Can't keep up with the ways that you change your mind
If you can't keep up and break my heart to pieces

Somebody else gon' sweep it up, sweep it up
Awe, damn
Sweep it up, if you can't keep up
On that hand is still hard to reach you
Don't let your next mistake be the one that teach you
Somebody else gon' sweep it up, sweep it up
Awe, damn
Sweep it up, if you can't keep up
Somebody else gon' sweep it up, sweep it up
Awe, damn
Sweep it up
Better clean this up

I can't read you, I can't leave you
You know I want you, but I don't need you
First time was a movie, what's the sequel?
Deep down I'm just trying to get equal

Two years and, still, I see you
And get stage fright, two years I can't lie
Wish that we were on the same side
My main line, trying to save you like daylight

I don't wanna leave your love behind
Can't keep up with the ways that you change your mind
If you can't keep up and break my heart

Somebody else gon' sweep it up, sweep it up
Somebody else gon'
Awe, damn
Sweep it up, if you can't keep up
On that hand is still hard to reach you
Don't let your next mistake be the one that teach you
Somebody else gon' sweep it up, sweep it up
Somebody else gon', yeah
Awe, damn
Sweep it up, if you can't keep up
Somebody else gon' sweep it up, sweep it up
Awe, damn
Sweep it up
Better clean this up

Sweep it up, sweep it up
Sweep it up, can't keep up
Sweep it up, sweep it up
Sweep it up
