

You

Coco Jones

I'm down
Know that I'm down, I'm down in love
Know that I'm down, I'm down in love

Couldn't get no louder
We're meant to be, they say we even sound alike
Lookin' at my mirror
Come a little closer, show me different signs

I wanna be living with you, we go together
Like brand-new shoes in perfect weather
Lil' mama fine and he a dime piece
Gotta be from Heaven, looking like my blessing

You like my drink in the Sahara
You showed me things I never saw, and
You know what, you real life
Gave me my heart and then taught me to love again
You get me started
It's the way that you keep me honest, ah
You don't come often, often
Gave me my heart and then taught me to love again

Is this real life, yeah? Is it real? (Boy, is it real?)
Is this real life, yeah? Is it real?

Got me on my knees, on my knees, on my knees
'Cause I need that, babe, ooh-wee
Talk to God and wait
I must've prayed so well for it
I swear on it

I wanna be living with you, we go together
Like brand-new shoes in perfect weather
Lil' mama fine and he a dime piece
Gotta be from Heaven, looking like my blessing

You like my drink in the Sahara (Oh)
You showed me things I never saw, and (You)
You know what (You, you)
You real life
Gave me my heart and then taught me to love again
You get me started
It's the way that you keep me honest, ah
You don't come often, often
Gave me my heart and then taught me to love again

I'm down
Know that I'm down, I'm down in love
Know that I'm down, I'm down in love
