

Oh my girl you're still in the middle
But only the middle
For once my dear you miss by a little
But only a little

I don't know which to way to stand

Ooh, ooh, ooh,
Ooh, ooh, ooh

Oh it's clear just look out a window
But only the window
I don't know how long to stay here, something's waking up
And I won't drive what you used to love

Yeah the old days I think they're coming back
But I don't mind
Ooh, ooh
Saw you in a park
Of a courtyard

And I love you, but I'd never tell you that
