

Back To One

Cocoon

I was the king of the castle, with you by my side
Left you alone for the battle, I was gone when you cried
Never thought I'd be the asshole, who blew out the flame
I'm broken in more ways than I know, but keepin' the faith

Some fools say, butterflies don't stay
It's been buggin' to wake up without your love
I take my chances, put on something fancy
Baby we'll be dancing, back to one

Back to one
Back to one
Back to one
Back to one

We were keeping our secrets, and growing apart
Missin' the taste of your sweetness, when you laid in my arms
Honey, I'll take all the pieces of your broken heart
And I'll keep on giving you reasons to go back to the start

Then some fools say, butterflies don't stay
It's been buggin' to wake up without your love
I take my chances, put on something fancy
Baby we'll be dancing, back to one

Back to one
Back to one
Back to one
Back to one

Back to one
(One, one, one)
Back to one (One)
Back to one

Some fools say, butterflies don't stay
It's been buggin' to wake up without your love
I take my chances, put on something fancy
Baby we'll be dancing, back to one

Back to one
(One, one)
Back to one (One)
Back to one (One)
Back to one (One)

And I keep on giving you reasons
Reasons to go back to the start
And I keep on giving you reasons
Reasons to go back, reasons to go back
I keep on giving you reasons
Reasons to go back to the start
And I keep on giving you reasons
Reasons to go back to one
