

Blue Night

Cocoon

Are you starting to miss me?
'Cause I'm starting to miss you
Are you staring at the sea?
It's what I'm doing too

Some kisses are painful
And I told you to be well
On a blue night in a pool
We choose not to care

I just kept coming back
But I don't know why it still makes me cry
There's no best goodbyes
Look at the sky, can you see this cloud?
Can you scream this loud?

You gave me shivers
But I live in a cage
A cold and quiet picture
Just a still image

And there is no abundance
So many words unspoken
Two hearts got racing
Instantly broken

I just kept coming back
But I don't know why it still makes me cry
There's no best goodbyes
Look at the sky, can you see this cloud?
Can you scream this loud?

I'll stay a day or two
See if the night turns blue
I'll stay a day or two
See if the night turns blue
See if the night
Turns blue
