

Cross

Cocoon

Oh I can't recall anything redeeming you
We are as opposed as the black to the blue
So here's a hidden track, just for you to sing along
There's no going back, with you I'm truly done

And I did my best
I tried so hard to love you
Or even just to like you
But I failed every time
At finding the key
Cross my name off your list

I don't know who now keeps you company
But wherever you are I don't wanna be
And I should have known this wouldn't end well for me
You prove me wrong and I set you free
