

Destruction

Cocoon

There's a billion tall towers out there
A million bridges everywhere
So won't you just pick one for good and jump?

We won't tolerate no false alarms
No calls for help no fake goodbyes
Out of my sight!
Out of my ears!
Out of my mind!
In the darkness

And I promise this time
I won't call 911
So don't you hesitate and get
Out of my life
Out of my life

Oh, it's way too late I'm 38
I survived but still I'm afraid
I shit my pants when I don't wet the bed

Cause when you're gone what's coming after you
A bigger monster? A morning dew?
Out of my youth!
Out of my dreams!
Out of my heart!
In the darkness

Is where I know you'll shine
To finally love you mum
So just give me a break and get
Out of my life
Out of my life
Oh, just give me a break and get
Just give me a break and get
Just give me a break and get
Out of my life
Out of my life
Out of my life
Out of my life
