

Roller Coaster

Cocoon

Go to hell
That's what you want to say
But it's too late
That's where I lived
With you from day to day
In this state

I know I deeply wounded you
Oh but I was wounded too

Sacrificial love
Nearly cost us us
Riding on this roller coaster
And forgetting to hang on
Forgetting we were strong
Don't you feel the same?
It's time to find each other again

The only chance
You left was me to go
Me to go
But I could never separate our souls
And I know

That I deeply wounded you
Oh but I was wounded too

Sacrificial love
Nearly cost us us
Riding on this roller coaster
And forgetting to hang on
Forgetting we were strong
Don't you feel the same?
It's time to find each other again
