

Walking on the beach to the sound of the waves
Monkeys in the trees it's a beautiful day
Found myself a hammock and a drink in the shade
Where all the pretty birds are singing for me

All I need is you
To come on down here
All I need is you
So wake up wake up wake up

Waiting for the sun and you baby
You should just come and lay with me
Waiting for the sun and my lady

And if you ask me what I'm gonna do
I'm gonna sit right here and wait for you

I made a little hut and it's perfect for two
There's rum in the cooler and pineapple juice
Fresh fish fillets roasting on the grill
Got everything we need so we could just chill

All I need is you
To come on down here
All I need is you
So wake up wake up wake up

Waiting for the sun and you baby
You should just come and lay with me
Waiting for the sun and my lady

And if you ask me what I'm gonna do
I'm gonna sit right here and wait for you

Waiting for the sun sun sun
And you baby
