

Superhero

Cocoon

Hum the words don't come out (x 2)

I was dumped two days ago for I'm not a superhero

And the good swimmers brave the greatest lakes as I am standing on the shore

I am bad at making friends but I was so much worse before

It just hurts a little

It just hurts once more

There was nothing I could do when one of the swimmers drowned

There was nothing I could do (x 2)

And the good swimmers brave the greatest lakes as I am standing
on the shore

I am bad at making friends but I was so much worse before

It just hurts a little

It just hurts once more

It just hurts a little

It just hurts once more

(x 2)

Once more (x 4)
