

Watch My Back

Cocoon

You fill the blanks when I get dumb
You stretch a rope when I get blind
There are often times when I tend to lose my mind
But you bring it back before it's gone
And my cries are real cries, you know
And my smiles are real smiles you know
And my lies are real lies you know
Oh my love is real love

You scream my name when I go deaf
You cry with me when I get drunk
There are often times when I tend to cross the line
But you watch my back no matter what
And my fears are real fears you know
And my jokes are real jokes you know
And my tears are real tears you know
Oh my love is real love
Oh my love is real love
Grow old with me
Grow old with me
Grow old with me
