

It Ain't Easy

CocoRosie

I know it ain't easy sometimes on your own
At the end of the road you'll find your way home
Ooh it ain't easy sometimes on your own
At the end of the road you'll find your way home

I am my best friend, like dog is man
Candle wicks and crucifix are more my kin

I am dead
Born like this, never had
Buttered bread, no blood
My mind is made of sky and mud
Carve me with a spoon, you could
God did

Kneeling on the cold stones hurts
We are the cold stones shattered in the earth
Kneeling on the cold stones hurts
We are the cold stones shattered in the earth

We are the cold stones shattered in the earth
Kneeling on the cold stones hurts
We are the cold stones shattered in the earth

It ain't easy
It ain't easy
It ain't easy
It ain't easy

I know it ain't easy sometimes on your own
At the end of the road you'll find your way home
Ooh it ain't easy sometimes on your own
At the end of the road you'll find your way home

(It ain't easy)

I know it ain't easy sometimes on your own (It ain't easy)
At the end of the road you'll find your way home (It ain't easy)
)
Ooh it ain't easy sometimes on your own (It ain't easy)
At the end of the road you'll find your way home
