There's only our hair's breadth between us, obscure as we are Obscure as we are, there's only our hair's breadth between us There's only our hair's breadth between us, as sure as we be As sure as we be, there's only our hair's breadth between us

```
Glass sandstorms
(Still we'll not keel over, keel over, keel over)
Glass candle
(Still we'll not keel over, keel over, keel over)
Grenades are popping
(Still we'll not keel over, keel over, keel over)
```
