

I'll remember you
With my fingers
And now we're in front of
A warm bonfire in an empty space

I want this moment to stop
Like it's saved in this camera
I took out an old this
And I'm holding you
With my thin fingers ticking
With my thin fingers ticking

I'll remember you
With my fingers
And now we're in front of
A warm bonfire in an empty space

I know this moment will pass
I know, I know it's stopped

Now, it's time to end
If my fingers give me
Time to hold you
I hope this moment will stop
