

Treat Her Better

CODE KUNST

Listen

Telling me the same ol' story about her
Fighting and lying each time
She sounds crazy
Now you're in the club
Asking what's up
You know that I can't be here, yeah

Follow you, follow you down town
Don't know if you're joking
I know you've been smoking
And you're just going on and on about her
About her

Oh my god
What she do
And I'm right here
Realizing everything you say ain't true
Oh my god
She said what
Yeah, you're just trying to get me closer to you

Imma have to stop you there
Cuz it really isn't fair
Cuz we're just friends if you weren't aware
Think we shouldn't walk together
I think you should go home and you, yeah, you

You should treat her better
You should treat her better
Cuz there's no you and me
No never ever
We're just friends
Just friends

You should treat her better
You should treat her better
Cuz there's no you and me
No never ever
We're just friends
Just friends

Listen

You making me the villain of the story
I know you know it's not right
Yeah, there's no maybe
I don't want a drink
You know what I think
See no means no - to be clear

Follow me follow me down town
Don't know if you're kidding
You don't know a thing about women
And you're still going on and on about her

Oh my god, what she do

And I'm right here
Oh my god
She said what

Imma have to stop you there
I think you should go home and you, yeah, you

You should treat her better
You should treat her better
No never ever
Just friends

You should treat her better
You should treat her better
Cuz there's no you and me
No never ever
Just friends

See I'm not your girlfriend
You're not my boyfriend
Baby, we could be friends
Just friends
Just friends

See I'm not your girlfriend
Baby, we could be friends
Just friends
Just friends

You should treat her better

Just friends

Cuz there's no you and me
No never
Just friends
