

Bind You

Code Orange Kids

I hear your words, but no emotions come through
I hear your pleas, but feel nothing new

Your actions have landed you here
In the heart of the confrontation
In the pit of corrosion

[Chorus]

Drenched in a fleeting loss
You sit and you stew
I felt it hitting hard
You earn what you live

The rest have left their beds to try and find you

But in the dark, in the end, I bind you

The rest have left their beds to try and find you
But in the dark, in the end, I bind you

[Chorus]

Drenched in a fleeting loss
You sit and you stew
I felt it hitting hard
You earn what you live

I bind you
Bind you
