Danger

Codeseven

You know you get what you want You get what you want Because you look at me You know you get what you want Be we float downstream yeah All is clear Under this translucent skin But you won't let me in The shade of your eyes The shape of your eyes Change the subject while you still can But its not gone no its not gone Engage the subject while you still can But its not going anywhere All is clear Under this translucent skin But you won't me in The shape of your eyes The element of surprise So sit down Just sit down Lets wait here Cause its not over You know you'll get what you want
