

Heaven Fall

Cody Carnes

The air is changing all around us
As heaven's glory makes an entrance
I feel it in my bones, I feel it on my skin
Heaven's closer than it's ever been

I feel the swell of anticipation
As we believe anything can happen
I feel it in my bones, I feel it on my skin
Heaven's closer than it's ever been
Let it rain
Let it rain, let it rain

Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want it all
Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want it all
Your freedom, Your joy
Your mercy, Your hope
We want it all
Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want it all

Every sorrow will drown in the joy of heaven
Every stronghold will break in the Healer's presence
Oh, I feel it in my bones, I feel it on my skin
I know, heaven's closer than it's ever been
Let it rain

Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want it all
Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want it all
Your freedom, Your joy
Your mercy, Your hope
We want it all
Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want it all

'Til our lungs run out of breath
Let our praises never end
'Til we're in over our heads
We want it all, we want it all
'Til our lungs run out of breath

Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want it all
Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want it all
Your freedom, Your joy
We want it all
Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want it all

'Til our lungs run out of breath
We want it all, we want it all
We want it all, we want it all

Let heaven fall
Let heaven fall
We want everything You have
We want it all
Let it rain, let it rain, let it rain
