

Saving

Cody Fry

I broke your heart
I thought you were beyond saving
You stood despite me
And turned around, the light fading

I don't understand

Tell me why, tell me why
Tell me why am I the one you're saving?
Tell me why, tell me why
Tell me why am I the one you're saving?

I am a burn mark
I'm branded by the fires that I set
But you came like new skin
And covered all the wounds that I kept

I don't understand

Tell me why, tell me why
Tell me why am I the one you're saving?
Tell me why, tell me why
Tell me why am I the one you're saving?

Even though I'm finally breathing
I can't find the words to speak
Am I sure that I'll be the one you're saving?

I don't understand

Tell me why, tell me why
Tell me why am I the one you're saving?
Tell me why, tell me why
Tell me why am I the one you're saving?

Tell me why, tell me why
Tell me why am I the one you're saving?
Tell me why, tell me why
Tell me why am I the one you're saving?

(I'm the one you save, I'm the one you save...)
