

Ain't a Train

Cody Jinks

Livin' on wings and wheels
In my mind or made of steel
If you ain't running scared and rough
Then you ain't running fast enough for me

Behind the 8 ball ain't always a bad place to be
You can get out of anything with a dollar and a dream
When your back's against the wall, you're fixed
But they can't get you from your six, you know

Maybe holdin' on to something hurts you more than lettin' go
It hit ain't hurtin', maybe it ain't workin', and it ain't wort
h it, no
Maybe the rain that brings the thunder will help put out the fl ames
Maybe the light at the end of the tunnel ain't a train

Maybe holdin' on to something hurts you more than lettin' go
It hit ain't hurtin', maybe it ain't workin', and it ain't wort
h it, no
Maybe the rain that brings the thunder will help put out the fl
ames
Maybe the light at the end of the tunnel ain't a train
Maybe the light at the end of the tunnel ain't a train
