

Hurt You

Cody Jinks

I hear them talking under their breath
Their lips don't move but I know what they said
I see them looking me up and down
Hiding their smiles like I'm some kind of clown
They don't know what you don't know

I'm gonna hurt you as much as I can
And watch you cry and die where you stand
I want to hear your tears hit the floor
I'm gonna hurt you
And hurt you some more

I felt the air sucked out of the room
What the hell did you get into
They just assume that I must be blind
Man I wish they could read my mind
Cause they don't know what you don't know

I'm gonna walk right up to your friends
I'm gonna tell them about the mess you're in
You're gonna watch their jaws hit the floor
I'm gonna hurt you
And hurt you some more

I'm gonna hurt you like you've never hurt
I'm gonna drive your name in the dirt
You won the battle but I win the war
I'm gonna hurt you and hurt you
I'm gonna hurt you as much as I can
And watch you cry and die where you stand
I want to hear your tears hit the floor
I'm gonna hurt you
And hurt you some more
I'm gonna hurt you
And hurt you some more
