

Roll

Cody Jinks

There ain't nothing worse than losing somebody
Love is such a precious thing to find
And I'm the first to admit, it might kill me
If I wasn't so damn stubborn all the time

Yeah I know life ain't easy
Man believe me I lose more than I win
Just gotta roll with the flow and the punches
You might get hit
You're gonna get back up again

Hard times like to hit when you ain't ready
You can't see them coming when you're looking the other way
Everybody's out there fighting something
We all get the blues when we've still got dues to pay

So just know life ain't easy
Man believe me you're gonna lose more than you win
Just gotta roll with the flow and the punches
You might get hit
You're gonna get back up again

Yeah I know life ain't easy
Man believe me I lose more than I win
Just gotta roll with the flow and the punches
You might get hit
You're gonna get back up again

You might get hit
You're gonna get back up again
