

Sober Thing

Cody Jinks

Well, it's me
In case you were wonderin'
Same old mess as I have Always been
I've been fightin'
Regrets and memories
Time has not healed me
Like I thought it would

And I don't know which ones are worse
The nightmares or the hangovers
The sleepless nights or the passin' out and finally gettin' rest
The slowin' down just reminds me of why
I started in the first place
The numbin' just fueled me for the runnin' away from the pain
And I'm closer to the messed up than the sober thing

I've been workin'
What I mean by workin'
Been tryin' to find myself
Who I am
I'm still fightin'
Regrets and memories
Time don't give up on me
Like I fear it will

And I don't know which ones are worse
The nightmares or the hangovers
The sleepless nights or the passin' out and finally gettin' rest
The slowin' down just reminds me of why
I started in the first place
The numbin' just fueled me for the runnin' away from the pain
And I'm closer to the messed up than the sober thing
