

Stranger

Cody Jinks

Who's this stranger in the mirror
The one that's lookin' back at me?
He ain't familiar, I don't know this guy
Who in the world could it be?

It ain't me, there ain't no way
And the stranger is gettin' stranger everyday

The guy I'm lookin' for, he's a young man
He ain't scarred-up and gettin' old
He's a good kid from the country
Your eyes are big-city-cold

It ain't me, there ain't no way
And the stranger is gettin' stranger everyday

Maybe I'm goin' crazy
Could be losin' my mind
Lookin' for someone familiar
That I knew one time

Stranger, hear me talkin'
Listen up to what I have to say

Waitin' for an answer... silence
Oh and the stranger is gettin' stranger every day

Maybe I'm goin' crazy
Could be losin' my mind
Lookin' for someone familiar
That I knew one time

Who's this stranger in the mirror?
