

The Wanting

Cody Jinks

From the mornin'
Through the day
And on through the night
Like the stinging
Or the burning of a slowly turning knife
I ache now just to hold you
Make you feel my love
If only The Wanting was enough

I may never live this feeling down
That's the one sure thing I've found

Better lost in love
Than never tried at all
I have found, in this life
There's are two ways can fall
I wish I could start it over
Wishing don't mean much
If only The Wanting was enough

I may never let this feeling down
That's the one sure thing I've found

I wish I could start over
Wishing don't mean much
If only The Wanting was enough

I may never live this feeling down
That's the one sure thing I've found
I may never live this feeling down
I can't want you anymore
