

Yesterday Again

Cody Jinks

Let's do yesterday again
Turn back the hands of time
And maybe in the morning
I'll still be yours and you still mine
Let's not worry about tomorrow
Tomorrow has to end
We both woke up here together
Let's do yesterday again

Can you give me one good reason
Both still lying here
The fightins' over now we're even
We've said our peace we've shed our tears
If we're holdin' on to nothin'
Be nothing' left to mend
We both know that it's not over
Let's do yesterday again

Who's to say how longs' forever
Or the time we'll have to spend
Let's not waste another minute
Let's do yesterday again
We both know that we're still in it
Let's do yesterday again
