

Daybreak

Cody Simpson

I'm campin' outside your castle cryin'
Hopin' you see me here
Tonight I feel like a man on fire
But I'm in the cool night air

I'm just a-waiting for day to break
Is this love or just a mistake?
I'm just a-waiting for day to break
Baby, how long will it take?
Waiting for day to break

Do you love me, do you love me
Put somebody else above me
Just don't leave me here alone
Aphrodite, Aphrodite
Put your body here beside me
'Cause I'm burnin' on my own

I'm just a-waiting for day to break
Is this love or just a mistake?
I'm just a-waiting for day to break
Baby, how long will it take?
Waiting for day to break

Shout it from the mountains high, I'm prayin' that it finds you r ear
I'm at the garden gate, take me in dear
I collapse on your lawn, a guitar at my side
And the diamonds of dawn in your eyes

I'm out here on my own
On my own
When you break into sight
As the sun starts to rise
It's the first time that I felt alive

I'm just a-waiting for day to break
Is this love or just a mistake?
I'm just a-waiting for day to break
Baby, how long will it take?
Waiting for day to break
