

Blessed

Coffey Anderson

This old truck has seen better days
Got a little rust on that tailgate
It still gets me down the interstate
One mile at a time
Got a couple bills that are overdue
Still got some dreams that ain't come true
But I got a girl I can hold on to
With her by my side

I'm B-L-E-double-S-E-D
Alive and well in the land of the free
I ain't rich, but I got everything I need
So I work hard, play hard, pray hard too
'Cause you get what ya give
And I always give my best
Then I let the good Lord handle the rest
Man, I'm blessed

Saw an angel on the side of the road
A cardboard sign in a camo coat
Spare some change, buy a man some hope?
So, I emptied out my console
'Cause you can't take it with you when you go

I'm B-L-E-double-S-E-D
Alive and well in the land of the free
I ain't rich, but I got everything I need
So I work hard, play hard, pray hard too
'Cause you get what ya give
And I always give my best
Then I let the good Lord handle the rest
Man, I'm blessed

I'm beyond lucky every single second every day
From the Monday grind to the Sunday drive
No matter what comes my way, oh

I'm B-L-E-double-S-E-D
Alive and well in the land of the free
I ain't rich, but I got everything I need
So I work hard, play hard, pray hard too
'Cause you get what ya give
And I always give my best
Then I let the good Lord handle the rest
Man, I'm blessed

Man, I'm blessed
Man, I'm blessed
