

All On Fire

Coheed and Cambria

All or nothing that you say will make me stay
Misguided by your loss and burning
Oh, you can't turn your eyes, you're glued to me
So if you don't like what you see

All on fire, oh no, please bring water

We'll soon find out who we are when all goes dark
These broken hearts and promises that always fade and never start
Have come apart

So, no longer me, no longer known
Do these moments on display suffice your need?
Please forgive me if I disagree
But your glimpse is now my nightmare

All on fire, oh no, please bring water

We'll soon find out who we are, alone in the dark
These broken hearts and promises that always fade and never start
Have come apart

All is lost and turned away
From out of my head and into the fray
Please make sure my door is closed when no one is home, no one

Sweet phantom, know now that I respect
Your cautious pantomime
Between what's said and what was meant
A shifting paradigm

Believe, my lover, it's time I disconnect
And find the end result
Come slither, you snake, please bring me back
To when life was wonderful

This heart of mine divides
(No longer do I, do I... No longer do I, do I)
When you want it, it waits
If you want it, it waits
(No longer do I, do I... No longer do I, do I)

Cause all on fire, oh no, please bring water
Oh no, please bring, please bring water, please bring water
All on fire, oh no, please bring water
Oh no, please bring, please bring water, please bring water

We'll soon find out who we are, alone in the dark
These broken hearts and promises that always fade and never start
Have come apart

We'll soon find out who we are, alone in the dark
These broken hearts and promises that always fade and never start
Have come apart
(Please bring water, please bring water)
