

Bad Man

Coheed and Cambria

I'm not here to spread your business
I'm just here to keep things cool
Oh, no you ain't got nothing to lose
No, what you got to prove?
Heaven and Hell be damned
If you're made to choose
Oh, it won't matter who's to blame or at fault
Honey, just know I'll be there when you want

When you need a bad man
A bad-mama, watch your mouth
They'll think twice about messing with you
You need a bad man
A bad-mama, call him out
Evil is as evil do
Better believe I'm in no mood

Go on calling for your mother
Good boy follows all the rules
Oh, what you got to prove?
When you're well beyond your use
Never felt so much alive
As I do when I'm here with you
When you need a bad man
A bad-mama, watch your mouth
They'll think twice about messing with you

You need a bad man, maybe
A bad-call him out
Evil is as evil do
Better believe I'm in no mood

Oh you need a bad man
Give you a bad man
Give you a bad man
A bad-mama, watch your mouth
They'll think twice about messing with you
You need a bad man
A bad-go on, call him out
Evil is as evil do

You need a bad man, maybe
A bad-mama, watch your mouth
They'll think twice about messing with you
You need a bad man
A bad-go on, call him out
Evil is as evil do
Better believe I'm in no mood
