

Justice in Murder

Coheed and Cambria

Is this the way I want them seeing me?
Please leave your memories at the door.
Why has the world gone off and deserted me?
Why, there's just no room inside these walls.

You want it all,
but did you want it tonight?
Oh you don't remember,
As you wait by the light.
Oh, can you see what you've been asking of me?
With the turn of this knife know, I will take your life.

This ain't a crime,
No I'm calling for mercy
Now it's time,
Please pray for me.

There will be justice in murder.
There will be justice in murder.

Now, you've been for me, what no other could be.
Will I now grow old to forget all those.
Blow off sorrow, goodbye tomorrow.

There is no worse than the curse they've given me.
This mule's seen it's end in love and war.
I'll wish you best when I'm lost to eternity.
Now do what you will, so it hurts no more.

You want it all,
but did you want it tonight?
Oh you don't remember,
As you wait by the light.
Oh, can you see what you've been asking of me?
With the turn of this knife know, I will take your life.

This ain't a crime,
No I'm calling for mercy
Now it's time,
Please pray for me.

There will be justice in murder.
There will be justice in murder.

Now, you've been for me, what no other could be.
Will I now grow old to forget all those.
Blow off sorrow, goodbye tomorrow.

There will be justice in murder.
There will be justice in murder.

Now, you've been for me, what no other could be.
Will I now grow old to forget all those.
Blow off sorrow, goodbye tomorrow.

There will be justice in murder, oh, no, no.
There will be justice in murder.

Now, you've been for me, what no other could be.
Will I now grow old to forget all those.
Blow off sorrow, goodbye tomorrow.
