

Shoulders

Coheed and Cambria

Listen now that I've got your attention
Got to let you know
I hate to see you go now that you're gone
We can enjoy the show
When you find them laughing at you
There's no worse thing

Hey
My wicked eyes do see
That I'm the one
With the world on my shoulders

You're going out of your way
Just to keep me down
Maybe we weren't made for each other
And I'm just the one you can keep around

Maybe all things have their misconceptions
That's the life you chose
Everyone is laughing at you, out to get you
But change is the exception
Time to brave your life outside the shadow
When they keep laughing at you
Dare you got to say

Hey
My wicked eyes do see
That I'm the one
With the world on my shoulders

You're going out of your way
Just to keep me down
Maybe we weren't made for each other
And I'm just the one you can keep around

You're going out of your way
Just to keep me down
Maybe we weren't made for each other
And I'm just the one you can keep around

You're going out of your way
Yeah, you're kicking me down
Maybe we weren't made for each other
But there's way worse things to keep around
