

Life Goes On

Coi Leray

Life goes on and I'm just losing friends one by one
I can't deny shit get real wack when you can't trust no one
They think they cap it oh they after you I don't want no one
They turn they back on you they lack on you then they on some same shit
They all want the fame you can keep it, fake love nah I don't need it
This music is all I believe in, these dudes is annoying they reachin'
I'm on my grind, yeah I'm on my way, I gotta long way to go
And to numb the pain, I smoke on a sweet, I don't even care about you

I don't think he tried to waste my time
Ride your one wave why you tryna ride mine
No I don't care what you have to say
I don't wanna talk if I'm not getting laid
Why these hater bitches always wanna try and stress me out
You can't play a playa no no no no you can't finesse me now
You can't try to flex on me no, I had to call him my bro
I put him in the friend zone, before he got close

Life goes on and I'm just losing friends one by one
They think they cap it oh they after you I don't want no one
They turn they back on you they lack on you then they on some same shit
They all want the fame you can keep it, fake love nah I don't need it
This music is all I believe in, these dudes is annoying they reachin'
