

Lately III

Coin

You were all I needed
For a second, you were all I needed
All I needed

Be honest with me
Do you, do you, do you wanna be honest with me right now?
I swear to God I meant nothing

But who am I-I kidding?
I want you right back in my arms
Right back in my arms

You were all I needed
For a second, you were all I needed
All I needed

The house is too quiet
So I sleep in my car
I'm losing my magic
I hear your voice in my head I think that I'm working too hard

But who am I-I kidding?
I want you right back in my arms
Right back in my arms

You were all I needed
For a second, you were all I needed
All I needed

All I needed
All I needed
(For a second, you were)
All I needed
All I needed
(Do you wanna be honest with me?)
All I needed
(Do you, do you, do you, do you wanna be honest with me right now?)
All I needed
(I swear, swear, swear, swear to God I meant nothing)
All I needed
(Who am I-I kidding?)
All I needed

You were all I needed
For a second, you were all I needed
