

Miranda Beach

Coin

I never believed in a miracle
And watching her by the waterfall
A punch in my teeth when I least expect it

She can never say anything wrong
But she could barely say anything at all
Alright
It's alright

Stone cold feeling
When my words don't reflect my intentions
Stare at the ceiling
What's going on in her head

Oh no
She's got me feeling undone
And she knows it
Miranda Beach

Alone in the balcony
My two left feet on the mezzanine
A tear in my chest when I least expect it

Ignore so naturally
You're so unaware accidentally
Right
That's alright, yeah

Oh you're wasting all of my evening
With eyes just like a television
Oh baby you make it look easy
What's going on in her head

Oh no
She's got me feeling undone
And she knows it, yeah
Oh no
She's got me feeling undone
And she knows it
Miranda Beach
