

(Slack-lack-lack-lack)

Hello
Is it obvious?
I'm notorious for holding all the blame
You know I don't talk too much
But don't chalk it up my body of mistakes
(Cut me some-)

I'll admit, yeah
Maybe there's some bad blood
Brush it in the kitchen sink
Loosen up now
Give me a little time to think, baby

Cut me some slack, kiss me like that
You don't make it easy, oh, believe me
When I'm turning my back
And you say no one's taking my place
But you don't ever need me 'til I'm leaving
Then I come right back
Cut me some slack (-lack-lack-lack)

Hello
I've been losing touch
I know half as much
And it's all that I can take
These days, I don't fall too far
I don't crash my car
And call it all the same
(Cut me some-)

I'll admit, yeah
Maybe there's some bad blood
Brush it through my crooked teeth
Loosen up now
Give me a little time to think, baby

Cut me some slack, kiss me like that
You don't make it easy, oh, believe me
When I'm turning my back
And you say no one's taking my place
But you don't ever need me 'til I'm leaving
Then I come right back

Woah
Oh-woah, oh-woah
Woah
Oh-woah, oh-woah

Cut me some slack, kiss me like that
You don't make it easy, oh, believe me
When I'm turning my back
And you say no one's taking my place
But you don't ever need me 'til I'm leaving
Then I come right back
Cut me some slack
