

Me

Colby Acuff

Wish I was a rabbit on the run
'Cause I'd hide up in a holler and wait for night to come
And if the hounds found me, I'd rub my paw for luck
I wish I was a rabbit on the run

If I could just be anything today
Oh, I'd probably just be anything but me

I wish I was a wild mustang
'Cause I'd run as fast as wind and scale the open plains
When the cowboys find me, I'll outrun their paints
I wish I was a wild mustang

If I could just be anything today
Oh, I'd probably just be anything but me

Wish I was a bird on the wing
'Cause I'd fly above the clouds away from everything
And if the wind got busy, oh, I'd find a poplar tree
I wish I was a bird on the wing

If I could just be anything today
Oh, I'd probably just be anything but me

Wish I was a whale out at sea
'Cause I'd come on up for air, and then I'd dive down deep
And if ole Ahab finds me, I'll run him through my teeth
I wish I was a whale out at sea

If I could just be anything today
Oh, I'd probably just be anything but me

If I could just be anything today
Oh, I'd probably just be anything but-
