

Somewhere Fast

Colby Acuff

Somewhere fast
Somewhere fast
I can't seem to outrun my past
My baby left me
Now I'm crying on my ass
Lord won't you send me somewhere fast

Well now I thought I could outrun you in Arkansas
But that didn't seem to last
Because your memory caught up to me
When I turned the corner and crashed
Once again I was headed somewhere fast

Somewhere fast
Somewhere fast
Well I can't seem to outrun my past
Well my baby left me
Now I'm crying on my ass
Lord won't you send me somewhere fast

Well then I thought I could outrun you in Tennessee
And everybody there took a liking to me
But hell the bar, the beer, the girls
Couldn't add up to what we had
Once again I was headed somewhere fast

Somewhere fast
Somewhere fast
Well I can't seem to outrun my past
Well my baby left me
Now I'm crying on my ass
Lord won't you send me somewhere fast

I saw you in a cabin in Louisville
And my heart was beating fast
But I bet a passing glance was too hard to ask
Lord won't you send me somewhere fast

Somewhere fast
Somewhere fast
I can't seem to outrun my past
My baby left me
Now I'm crying on my ass
Lord won't you send me somewhere fast

Somewhere fast
Somewhere fast
My baby's left me on these tracks
I'm handcuffed to the rail
And boy that train is hauling ass
Lord won't you send me somewhere fast
