

Start In The Morning

Colby Acuff

Well I woke up with the sunrise must have been 6 am And I could feel that hangover slowly creeping in
And I knew my only way out was through more sin
Now I got a twelve-pack in my hand and I'm back off the wagon again

Yeah well you can't drink all day unless you start in the morn ing
No stop signs no forewarnings
Sometimes life can get kinda boring
That's why you can't drink all day unless you start in the morn ing

Yeah we were off on a fishing trip it was just a couple buddies and I
We brought plenty of beer but man we forgot the ice
I said, "boys we better drink up 'cause that sun is getting mig hty high"
It was around 1 pm we were all pretty drunk and ready for a res upply

Yeah well you can't drink all day unless you start in the morn

Tailgates and football games
Camping and lake days, it's all-day affair Can't do it every day you might wind up in AA
But the fact still remains the same

Well you can't drink all day unless you start in the morning
No stop signs no forewarnings
Sometimes life can get kinda boring
That's why you can't drink all day unless you start in the morn
