One Long Day

Cold Chisel

City life is closing in on me The way things go, thirty years, Bus timetable'll be my elergy

Up at seven every working day Pay comes in, pay goes out It's a week-by-week charade

General panic in the marketplace Boss found hung in office Could not stand the pace

And as the peak-hour traffic jams below Someone gets the story, somebody spread the rumour People come and go

Wandered down along the river last night Call me romantic, I say I couldn't sleep Until the first-light struck me down

Padding homeward on the inside lane Early morning, freeway's cool and quiet Dodging rubber stains

People talking in a seaside bar I ain't sentimental, but Lord Sometimes I get that gypsy urge to travel far

You know I'll disappear some long weekend Find a mangrove landscape Stretch out along some busted jetty And forget who I am

You got to move
You got to go
You go to be somebody
You got to roll
You got to stop
You got to change
You got to make a little money
And be a little strange

And one long day
Is all it takes to steal her heart away
One long night
And it's allright, you've done it again
Soft, low words
And slender ladies, beneath the cafe fans
One long day
Layed by dreams
Cotton dresses, a Spanish border town
Dreams so far
From the subway, the crowds heading home
Close each day
In technicolor, a million miles away
One long night and you're alone

Meanwhile
City ways
Life goes creeping on Sometimes
I get the blues
