

I Stand Corrupted

Cold Driven

Well, it seems to me
You are consequence free
You were born to lie so innocently
Your guilt trips come cheap
Stealing the best in me
You don't compromise
So our worlds collide
Can't take it in can't let it out
Cause I keep falling apart

I stand corrupted
By my broken heart
I keep falling apart at the dreams
I stand corrupted
By my broken heart
I keep falling apart at the dreams

I should have left you right where I found you
In your desperate scene
Here's your answer key
You make up strangers beds
To wake up with regrets
But there's no revenge here
I'm walking away
Can't take it in can't let it out
Cause I keep falling apart

I stand corrupted
By my broken heart
I keep falling apart at the dreams
I stand corrupted
By my broken heart
I keep falling apart at the dreams

Here's to what we had
It's never looked so bad
Staring through the glass

Keep the killjoy for keepsake
You're so different than me
So I grew distant from you
Lost in the middle of somewhere I don't belong

I stand corrupted
By my broken heart
I keep falling apart at the dreams
I stand corrupted
By my broken heart
I keep falling apart at the dreams

I stand corrupted
Keep falling apart
I keep falling apart at the dreams
I keep falling apart
Cause I'm corrupted

It's never looked so bad
