

Now That I'm Gone

Cold Driven

I had a damn good reason
To leave without goodbye
I'm chasing down the headlights
As I'm leaving you behind

So find another victim
To keep you warm at night
Cause I won't be there waiting
Just to hear another lie

And I don't care
What went wrong
You had your chance
Now I'm gone
Stop holding on

(Whoa)
You breakdown cause you know that it's over
Right now you're all alone
Now that I'm gone
(Whoa)
You breakdown I won't be there to hold you
I'm not coming home
So let me move on
Now that I'm gone

By now you found the letter
I left under my key saying
Don't bother calling
I'm not answering

And I don't care
What went wrong
You had your chance
Now I'm gone
Stop holding on

(Whoa)
You breakdown cause you know that it's over
Right now you're all alone
Now that I'm gone
(Whoa)
You breakdown I won't be there to hold you
I'm not coming home
So let me move on
Now that I'm gone

I had a damn good reason
To leave without goodbye
To leave without goodbye
To leave without goodbye

(Whoa)
You breakdown cause you know that it's over
Right now you're all alone
Now that I'm gone
(Whoa)

You breakdown I won't be there to hold you
I'm not coming home
So let me, let me, let me move on
