

Ceiling Fan

Cold War Kids

You want this love
To be black and white
But it's gotten so surreal
There are no straight lines

Is it good enough for you
Is it good enough for you
These elephants in the room
It's popping off like a balloon

Is it good enough for you
Is it good enough for you
Let's fly to the moon

Let's swing from the ceiling fan
The room is spinning around
We're dancing on the nightstand
Let the music take over
We will never get older

This ship has sailed
We said goodbye last night
To our self control
We swallowed everything in sight

Is it good enough for you
Is it good enough for you
Let's fly to the moon

Let's swing from the ceiling fan
The room is spinning around
We're dancing on the nightstand
Let the music take over
We will never get older

You keep jumping on the bed
But please honey watch your head
We're swinging from the ceiling fan
Until we fall down again

Did we go swimming in a fountain?
I have no recollection
I can't seem to tell the difference
Between dreams and feelings
Between dreams and feelings

Let's swing from the ceiling fan
The room is spinning around
We're dancing on the nightstand
Let the music take over
We will never get older

Let's swing from the ceiling fan
The room is spinning around
We're dancing on the nightstand

Between dreams and feelings
Dreams and feelings
Between dreams and feelings
Dreams and feelings
Between dreams and feelings
(On the ceiling fan)
Dreams and feelings
(On the ceiling fan)
Between dreams and feelings
(On the ceiling fan)
Dreams and feelings
(On the ceiling fan)
