

Nirvana Blues

Colde

Oh, who's that in my mirror?
You look just like me
But you smells like teen spirit
Oh, my inner daydreamer
Is something in the way?
Can you show me something realer?

Oh, yeah, I got Nirvana Blues
I don't need a cure
Need a throwback to my youth
Oh, yeah, I got Nirvana Blues
Feelin like Cobain that's my name for this tune
Yeah, what you want? Let's get it
Yeah, you won't never regret it
Oh, yeah, I got Nirvana Blues
I don't need a cure
Need a throwback to my youth

Okay, my air guitar is out of tune, I'm lit (Ready? Yeah)
You can't throw shade at me, I'd cool in it (Ha-ha; Yeah)
No, I do not know how to miss
Hit record, I got a hit
That's my dream, just tryna live it baby
I don't even know how long it's been
I can't stay up all night the way we did as kids
I'm like that baby on the cover, tryna swim
Come as you are I'm diving in Getting wavy with my twin
Put that Nirvana playlist on
Keep my youth inside those songs
I won't never be too old for waves they made in '91
If you didn't know by now
Baby, I'm just tryna rock
Turn my life into my lyrics
Keep it in my Heart-Shaped Box, yeah, I know

Looking back on all the time I spent
Let it all replay inside my head
Good old days, remember?
I could stay in this place forever

Oh, yeah, I got Nirvana Blues
I don't need a cure
Need a throwback to my youth
Oh, yeah, I got Nirvana Blues
Feelin like Cobain that's my name for this tune
Yeah, what you want? Let's get it
Yeah, you won't never regret it
Oh, yeah, I got Nirvana Blues (Yeah)
I don,t need a cure
Need a throwback to my youth

I'm your best friend till the end
I'm the only voice you need inside your head
I should write this song instead
I know everything you thought but never said
You're my best friend till the end

You're the only voice I need inside my head
You should write this song instead
You know everything I thought but never said

Oh, who's that in my mirror?
You look just like me
But you smells like teen spirit
Oh, my inner daydreamer
Is something in the way?
Can you show me something realer?
