Coldfinger

I m alone and lost in the crowd finding myself so delirious and confused And I wish I knew where you are yes,
I wish I knew where you are
'cause I am missing you so I am chasing my way out of here chasing my way out of your sweet memory
'cause I still can't get you off my mind I know I still can t get you off my mind and Im needing you so and if only I had tried if I had tried if I had given some more then this would be the place where you'd be and I'd be holding you so

and I'd be holding you so
