

FREE FALL

coldrain

In this free fall
We're not afraid to lose it all
(Fuck that shit)

Now we rise in defiance
Won't surrender in silence
So fuck your compliance
You're not the answer
You're not the future
Pain over comfort
These veins over wires

We wanna feel connection
We want real affection
No more copy pasted hell

In this free fall
We're not afraid to lose it all
In this free fall
We'd rather be in pain than feel nothing

Lonely restless fragile hearts
Bruised and broken body parts
Healing slow but burning bright
Screaming until the day we die

We want love, we want soul
We want truth over control
We want life, we want more
If chaos makes us human
Then let it take its toll

In this free fall
We're not afraid to lose it all
In this free fall
We'd rather be in pain than feel nothing at all
Nothing at all

Now we wanna feel connection
Now we want real affection
Now no more copy pasted hell

In this free fall
We're not afraid to lose it all
In this free fall
We'd rather be in pain than feel nothing at all

In this free fall
In this free fall
In this free fall
